
Ransomware

Ransomware is one of the fastest-growing methods of cyberattack. The ransomware attack WannaCry demanded billions of dollars from the hospitals who fell victim. There were hundreds of other attacks that affected thousands of people and exceeded $5 billion in costs globally. Everyone is at risk. Be mindful that each email you open is a potential threat.

