

---

Mobile Device Security

Mobile device security is just as important as computer security. Did you know that unsecured WiFi networks and phony apps could cause your data to be hijacked? Always confirm hotspots are legitimate and apps are from a trusted source before connecting or downloading on your mobile device.

